FOREWORD

The Calendar of Expiring Agreements is a compilation of major collective agreements in British Columbia which are scheduled to expire in the coming year. The publication includes those expiring agreements which cover 25 or more employees.

The total number of agreements and employees covered by expiries listed in the Calendar likely understates to some extent the bargaining activity to be expected during 1993. First, it is not possible to anticipate bargaining which will arise from first-contract negotiations where a trade union has been newly certified by the Industrial Relations Council. Second, at the time data for the Calendar was being assembled in November 1992, a number of collective agreements were in the process of being re-negotiated. Some of these renewed agreements will likely expire in 1993 but at the time of the publication it was not known which of them will be up for negotiation again in the coming year. A revised list of upcoming expiries is published each month in Collective Bargaining Information Monthly which is available from Crown Publications in Victoria.

The information contained in the Calendar was compiled by members of the Policy and Legislation Branch. Our thanks are extended to employers and unions who cooperated in providing expiry information to the Branch.

INTRODUCTION

A total of 331 major collective agreements covering 25 or more employees will expire in British Columbia during the 1993 calendar year. These expiries will cover 101,447 employees within the province or 19% of the unionized work force. The number of collective agreement expiries and the number of workers covered by these expiries are down from the 1992 totals (452 agreements covering 131,179 employees).

Important negotiations will be occurring throughout the year, although the months of March and December will be of particular note with 61 and 100 major contract expiries, respectively. March and December expiries cover 58,958 employees or 58% of the year's total. For more information see Table 2 and the accompanying graphs.

In terms of industry, important negotiations will be occurring across all sectors of the economy. The transportation/communication industry has the largest expiries of all the industries. These will include B.C. Tel, B.C. Hydro, CNR, CP Rail and Canadian Airlines expiries. Significant negotiations will also occur in municipal services including municipalities province wide and the trade industry including the retail food store contracts expiring in March 1993.

The majority of 1993 expiries will occur in the private sector. The private sector has 203 major expiries covering a total of 63,360 employees or 62% of employees involved in major negotiations this year.

The public sector will not be very busy during 1993. There will be only 128 major expiries in the sector covering 38,087 employees or 38% of the total. The education sector will see the contract expiry of only some school districts - teacher and non-teacher agreements in June. A total of 11,607 workers in the education sector will have their contracts re-negotiated. Lower mainland municipalities will be renegotiating their civic employees agreements this year. They expire in December.

Information within the 1993 Calendar of Expiring Collective Agreements is set up in a similar fashion to previous years. Tables 1 and 2 provide summary information. Table 3 provides a listing of all major expiries by month, while Table 4 provides the same information along an industrial breakdown.

The following is a listing of the 44 major expiries for 1993 which cover 500 or more employees. This listing is ordered by the calendar year.
